ROARING NEWS

The Fork

There was a young woman who had been diagnosed with a terminal illness and had been given three months to live. So as she was getting her things in order, she contacted her Pastor and had him come to her house to discuss certain aspects of her final wishes.

She told him which songs she wanted sung at the service, what scriptures she would like read, and what outfit she wanted to be buried in. Everything was in order and the Pastor was preparing to leave when the young woman suddenly remembered something very important to her.

"There's one more thing," she said excitedly.

"What's that?" came the Pastor's reply.

"This is very important," the young woman continued. "I want to be buried with a fork in my right hand." The Pastor stood looking at the young woman, not knowing quite what to say. "That surprises you, doesn't it?" the young woman asked.

"Well, to be honest, I'm puzzled by the request," said the Pastor.

"In all my years of attending socials and dinners, I always remember that when the dishes of the main course were being cleared, someone would inevitably lean over and say, 'Keep your fork.' It was my favorite part because I knew that something better was coming...like velvety chocolate cake or deep-dish apple pie. Something wonderful and with substance!

"So, I just want people to see me there in that casket with a fork in my hand, and I want them to wonder, 'What's with the fork?' Then I want you to tell them: 'Keep your fork, the best is yet to come.'"

The Pastor's eyes welled up with tears of joy as he hugged the young woman good-bye. He knew this would be one of the last times he would see her before her death. She had a better grasp of what heaven would be like than many people twice her age, with twice as much experience and knowledge. She KNEW that something better was coming.

*Here I am! I stand at the door and knock.
If anyone hears my voice and opens the door,
I will come in and eat with him, and he with me.*
Revelation 3:20

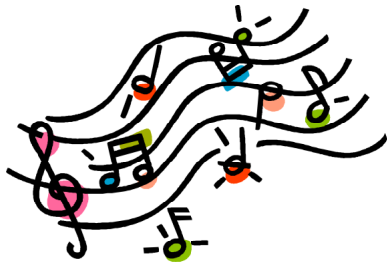

HELP!!

We are in need of white 8½x11 copy paper. If you can supply a ream or two, please bring it to the office. Thanks!

2010-2011 Registration

It's hard to believe that this year is almost over! Remember to turn in your registration application. Your child's place is not confirmed until the paperwork and fees have been turned in, so drop yours off in the office soon! If you need another copy download one from Legacy's website or stop by the office.

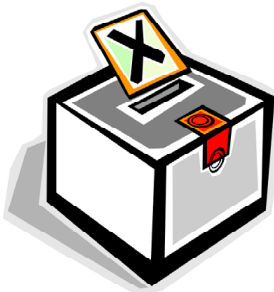

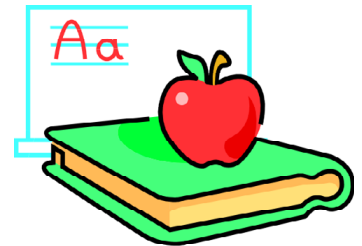

Spring Concert

NEXT Tuesday is the Spring Concert all of our children have been rehearsing for. Children should be in their classrooms by 6:15. PTF will be serving refreshments in the Fellowship Hall after the concert.

Teacher Appreciation Week

Traditionally Teacher Appreciation Week is the first week of May. We love our teachers and want to make it a special time for them. If you would like to donate toward the festivities, drop it by the office or contact Heather Kirkwood (Legacy's Head Lunch-Mom).

PTF Elections

As the 2009-2010 school year winds down, we start gearing up for next year! The annual PTF Board Elections will be held at the May PTF meeting. Do you have an interest in fostering the relationships of the parents, the students, and the teachers at Legacy? Or helping to organize school activities? We need approximately SIX more members for next year. To find out more contact Cassandra at ptf@legacychristianschool.com.
