A happy New Year!
Grant that I
May bring no tear
to any eye
When this New Year
in time shall end
Let it be said I've played the friend,
Have lived and loved and labored
here,
And made of it a happy year.

Reflections:

Another year is over and for many of us the Christmas decorations are back in their boxes until the holiday rolls around again. This is a great time of year for our students, as they are ready to reengage their thinking processes after the holidays, and we have a long stretch until Easter break. Our next major school event is the annual science fair coming up at Legacy on Monday, February 22. One part of training our students in academic excellence is participating in this event, either as individuals or as a class project in the younger grades. For our creative inventor types the Lemelson Young Inventors Challenge is a separate category for inventions where the top winners will receive savings bonds.

Packets with information about the science fair should be coming home shortly. It is a great opportunity to work with your child or children, encouraging them to work within the scientific process asking questions, hypothesizing outcomes, gathering results and drawing conclusions, building critical thinking skills so necessary in today's society. Legacy has done well in past years at the Western Nevada Regional Science and Engineering Fair (March 26th - 28th), and it is a great way to showcase our talented students and promote Legacy in the community. More information about the science fair and its requirements is available on the web at:
